WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

We are learning to use “he” sentences to describe things, and tino and rawa for emphasis.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- I can describe a thing with “He ____ te ____”
- I can add tino or rawa for emphasis
- I can write a series of sentences describing something

CONNECT

“This is a red pen” · “The pen is red”

- What is different?

I DO

Two patterns

Novice 1: what is it?

- He pene whero tēnei.
- This is a red pen.

Novice 2: describe it

- He whero te pene.
- The pen is red.

I DO

Add emphasis

He + (tino) + adjective + (rawa) + te + thing

- He tino nui te whare. The house is very big.
- He nui rawa te whare. The house is very / too big.
- tino goes before · rawa goes after

I DO

Describing words

nui big	iti small	roa long; tall
poto short	pai good	kino bad
ātaahua beautiful	hōu new	tawhito old

WE DO

Mystery object

Ask yes/no questions

1. He nui te mea?
2. He whero te mea?
3. He hōu te mea?
