WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

We are learning to communicate about our parents and caregivers.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- I can say who my parents or caregivers are
- I can link two names with “rāua ko”
- I can make relational particles plural by dropping the t

CONNECT

Why does whānau matter when you introduce yourself?

- It shows who you are and where you come from

I DO

Same pattern as your name

Question	Answer
Ko wai tō ingoa?	Ko Cruz taku ingoa.
Ko wai tō māmā?	Ko Atawhai taku māmā.
Ko wai tō kaitiaki?	Ko Huia taku kaitiaki.

I DO

Two people: rāua ko

- Ko wai ō mātua?
- Ko Hēnare rāua ko Marama aku mātua.
- rāua ko = “and” between two names

I DO

Drop the t to make it plural

One	More than one	Pronoun
taku hoa	aku hoa	au / ahau
tō hoa	ō hoa	koe
tana hoa	ana hoa	ia
