WARM-UP

WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

We are learning what haka are, the tikanga around them, and the meaning of our school haka.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- I can explain the meaning and tikanga of our haka
- I can perform my part with the group
- I can show respect for the haka and the people it belongs to

WARM-UP

Breathe, voice, body

Before we start

1. Deep breaths: in 4, hold 4, out 4
2. Vowel sirens: a e i o u, short and long
3. Stance: feet apart, knees bent, chest out

LEARN

Haka: tikanga and meaning

- Haka are not only war dances: they welcome, celebrate, challenge and mourn
- Every haka has a composer, iwi or kura it belongs to
- Ka Mate belongs to Ngāti Toa Rangatira (Te Rauparaha); it must be attributed
- Perform with respect: never as a joke or in costume
