Rubric

Criterion	Working towards	Achieved	Merit	Excellence
Kōrero: exchanging information	Answers familiar questions with support	Exchanges information about whānau, origin, birthdays and time	Exchanges information with some independence and few pauses	Exchanges information fluently and adds detail
Address and tikanga	Greets without names	Uses names and terms of address (e, mā, e te)	Chooses address that suits the person and context	Shows manaakitanga and whanaungatanga throughout
Pronunciation	Some vowels clear	Most vowel lengths correct	Uses stress and intonation to clarify meaning	Natural rhythm and emphasis
Strategies	Relies on the teacher	Uses Kōrero mai anō, Āta haere	Checks understanding (Kua mārama?)	Keeps the kōrero going for both speakers
Tuhi: writing	Some familiar sentences	A series of simple descriptive sentences	Accurate a/o, sibling terms, macrons	Varied, connected sentences with linking words
