WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

We are learning to use kīwaha in everyday conversation, and to use reference tools (dictionaries, AI, glossaries) ethically and responsibly.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- I can use three kīwaha in the right context
- I can explain why kīwaha are figurative, not literal
- I can check a word from a reference tool for meaning, macrons and context

CONNECT

“Sweet as” word for word?

- Would it make sense in another language?

I DO

Ngā kīwaha

Ā tōna wā
all in good time

Engari mō tēnā
that's great; you bet

Karawhiua! go for it!

Tau kē!
awesome!

Ka wani kē!
fantastic!

Ka mau te wehi!
amazing!

I DO

Figurative, not literal

- Kīwaha carry values, humour, emotion and social norms
- They strengthen social bonds
- Learn them in context, not word for word

I DO

Checking a reference tool

Dictionary, AI or glossary

1. Look at all the meanings
2. Check the macrons
3. Read an example sentence
4. For AI: check it in Te Aka and with a fluent speaker
5. Only use what you can explain

YOU DO

Your task

Kōrero	Skit using three kīwaha.
Device	Look up five words in Te Aka.
Worksheet	Complete the reference tool table.
